FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Greater Nassau Chorus Welcomes Greenlawn Singer

Chris Mulholland, right, being congratulated by Master Director, Harriette Walters, shortly after becoming a new member of Greater Nassau Chorus of Sweet Adelines International.

Chris Mulholland of Greenlawn just became a proud member of the award-winning Greater Nassau Chorus of Sweet Adelines International.

Mulholland, who is an 11-year member of Island Hills, another local Sweet Adelines chorus, had long considered becoming a dual member with Greater Nassau. “GNC is just fabulous,” says Mulholland. “Every time I watched them on stage at Regional performances, I would sit there mesmerized. I mean, how do 80 women actually bring you to tears? Their music is absolutely gorgeous, and they sing it wonderfully.”

When GNC along with 14 other choruses in the Greater New York Region of Sweet Adelines International hosted a series of open house rehearsals throughout the month of June, Mulholland finally decided it was time to audition for the chorus she had been admiring from afar.

Greater Nassau Chorus

of Sweet Adelines International

Greater Nassau Chorus, under the direction of Harriette Walters, achieved 7th place in the world at the Sweet Adelines International Chorus Competition in October 2007. As 2008 Regional champions, they again qualified to represent the Greater New York Region at the International level in Nashville, Tennessee this October.

Women are invited to discover the joy of singing chord-ringing, fun-filled music a cappella-style with Greater Nassau Chorus. For membership information, visit www.greaternassauchorus.org.

Sweet Adelines International is a worldwide organization of women singers committed to advancing the musical art form of barbershop harmony through education and performance.
