FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Greater Nassau Chorus Welcomes Cold Spring Harbor Singer

Judy Peters, left, being congratulated by Master Director, Harriette Walters, shortly after becoming a new member of Greater Nassau Chorus.

Judy Peters of Cold Spring Harbor just became one of the newest members of Greater Nassau Chorus.

Greater Nassau Chorus, along with 14 other choruses in the Greater New York Region of Sweet Adelines International, hosted open house rehearsals throughout the month of June. Peters was one of several women who participated in this membership drive and subsequently joined the chorus.

Peters had been affiliated with a different Sweet Adelines chorus for four years but recently decided to sing with Greater Nassau. "I spent years admiring Greater Nassau Chorus from afar," Peters said. "And I'm thrilled to finally be part of this amazing group!"

Greater Nassau Chorus

of Sweet Adelines International

Greater Nassau Chorus achieved 7th place in the world at the Sweet Adelines International Chorus Competition in October 2007. As 2008 Regional champions, they again qualified to represent the Greater New York Region at the International level in Nashville, Tennessee this October.

Women are invited to discover the joy of singing chord-ringing, fun-filled music a cappella-style with Greater Nassau Chorus. For membership information, visit www.greaternassauchorus.org.

Sweet Adelines International is a worldwide organization of women singers committed to advancing the musical art form of barbershop harmony through education and performance.
