FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Greater Nassau Chorus Welcomes Stony Brook Singer

Kathy Sanislo, right, being congratulated by Master Director, Harriette Walters, shortly after becoming a new member of Greater Nassau Chorus of Sweet Adelines International.

Kathy Sanislo of Stony Brook just became one of the newest members of Greater Nassau Chorus.

Greater Nassau Chorus, along with 14 other choruses in the Greater New York Region of Sweet Adelines International, hosted a series of open house rehearsals throughout the month of June. Sanislo is one of several women who participated, fell in love with the group, and subsequently joined.

“I’m really excited to be part of such an energetic group of women,” said Sanislo. “Everyone has been so welcoming and sharing in their passion about the music we sing.”

Sanislo is new to Greater Nassau Chorus, but she has been a member of Sweet Adelines International for 16 years. She is maintaining her membership with Island Hills Chorus and has chosen to become a dual member with Greater Nassau for the challenge: “I’m looking forward to working on improving my vocal skills. It's just so fantastic to have the opportunity to grow and sing with Greater Nassau."

Greater Nassau Chorus, under the direction of Harriette Walters, achieved 7th place in the world at the Sweet Adelines International Chorus Competition in October 2007. As 2008 Regional champions, they again qualified to represent the Greater New York Region at the International level in Nashville, Tennessee this October.

"GNC is so professional," Sanislo marvels. "It's everything I always wanted. It's amazing."

Women are invited to discover the joy of singing chord-ringing, fun-filled music a cappella-style with Greater Nassau Chorus. For membership information, visit www.greaternassauchorus.org.

Sweet Adelines International is a worldwide organization of women singers committed to advancing the musical art form of barbershop harmony through education and performance.
